Trek with an expert guide alongside three amazing management thinkers. Soak in the nature, the grandeur, the inspiring scenery. Your mind will be opened to new possibilities ... by the surroundings and by the discussions.

During the expedition that will take you through some of the most beautiful nature scenes in the south of Iceland you will enjoy the company of three very respected management thinkers and you will have a chance to be inspired by them, discuss ideas and share your thoughts and experiences.

Some of the scenes you will enjoy include close encounter with the glacier and notorious volcanic mountain Eyjafjallajökull which in 2010 blocked all the air traffic in Europe, 4x4 jeeping in glacier rivers, hiking in spectacular landscape and visiting the mystical volcanic island Vestmannaeyjar populated with around 4.000 inhabitants and over 1.000.000 puffins.
